LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,
For the last nine months I haven't been getting my paper regular as high as three times. I haven't got it for two to three weeks. I've begin to wonder what the hold up is.
I live in Kettering. I'd say it goes to Dayton and whoever gets it keeps it and don't give it back to the mail carrier. There's a lot of people that lives around from Kentucky. But I hope to start getting it regular. If not I will have to stop.

A Tribute To Bonnie Ruth Lewis

Dear Editor,
I believe my acquaintance with Miss Bonnie Ruth Lewis, who passed away June 24, 2009, needs to be conveyed to her family and friends of Morgan County. She meant so much to me, as I know she did with many others in your community. If at all possible, I request your help in contributing to the legacy of this noble lady.
Sincerely,
James Allen Amyx

I was a bookkeeper for over 21 years. I am chronological and methodical in my thinking, and honest with my facts. What I am about to write pales in comparison to what I could write if time would only allow it. I have found it difficult to present a sincere eulogistic tribute to this noble lady, for my thoughts are extensive and are lengthy for the reader.
My memory is filled to overflowing with true stories about my Amyx Adventure, which was intricately involved with Miss Bonnie Ruth and her family. Keeping my tribute on target about her (the personality) is difficult without surrounding references to dates, family members and the beautiful land which has the historic structures. How can I convey or explain the joy and excitement as I reminisced with her by telephone and visited in her home in Wrigley?
The following, therefore, has been cut and condensed, and then condensed again. In my attempt not to be too wordy giving the facts of my memory correctly, the reader should be aware that this is also an expression of my heart.

Spending most of my life here in Texas, it took a few persistent phone calls from my sister, Peggy Amyx Walker, just to convince me to leave here and drive the 50 miles to Lawton, Okla., to attend my first Amyx reunion. The information I was given (to say the least) actually catapulted my curiosity into a compelling drive to trace the family line of my father, Roy Allen Amyx, of Morgan County, Ky. The name "Bonnie Ruth Lewis" kept popping up during my research. I was curious about her. I learned early that she had been a school teacher, and that she had been quoted in Selections from Morgan County History by Helen Price Stacy and William Lynn Nickell. I wondered even back years ago what she was like and what kind of person she would be. By the next year, I had swiftly launched a research and mailing campaign that rivaled anything I had attempted in my life. Interested in any discovery of the Amyx surname, I had been to the public library and the local Midwestern State University library, requested old historical documentation from state and county resources of Virginia and Kentucky, subscribed to Genealogical Helper magazine, plus many small local publications in Kentucky, and was in contact with many elderly people through letters.

Though I had seen her name so many times before in print, the relationship that Bonnie Ruth would have to the family came rather suddenly. How well I remember it! How well I remember that day emotionally as I write these words.

It was already hot that August morning in 1981 here Wichita Falls, Texas, when finally the mail carrier came into view. Thinking I might receive another interesting letter or two from other people inquiring information on their families, I quickly stepped down from my front porch, held out my hand, and was handed a large manila envelope. Out of the blue, the contents of the envelope hit my heart and mind in a blaze of glory!

Inside, on top of the documents, was a letter from a Francis Cohen Lewis, M.D.:

*Dear Mr. Amyx,
I saw your query in a Kentucky genealogical magazine recently. We are surely cousins. Your great-great-grandfather, Peter H. Amyx, is buried about a hundred yards from a farm owned by my father, Ernest P. Lewis, brother Lawrence Dale Lewis and myself. Our farm has the house of Henry Amyx and one formerly owned by Philip Amyx before they moved to Oklahoma about 1907.*

In another letter from October 1981:

Enclosed are pictures of the old Philip Amyx place, now in disrepair. My cousin, Freeman Lewis, lives in a trailer beside the house, and operates the farm.

The letters continued with the brother of Bonnie Ruth. When I wrote him, he answered promptly, sending more pictures and documentation. He wanted to meet me, and was gracious with his repeated invitations to me and my sister.

Then, in 1982, my sister, Peggy Amyx Walker, did have that opportunity of a lifetime when she actually visited Morgan County and met in person my cousin and pen pal Dr. Francis Cohen Lewis and his father, Ernest P. Lewis.

While I was still corresponding with the doctor, he mentioned Peggy's visit. That together, because of the knowledge of his dad, they discovered the grave of my great-grandfather, James M. Amyx and his wife, Polly Sargent.

There was another Amyx reunion in New Mexico in 1983. Peggy had spoken on a cassette tape telling them about her delightful trip to Morgan County. The tape no longer exists, but I had the opportunity to keep most of the information and transcribe it to the written page.

On the tape was my Aunt Anna Amyx Archer, a sister to my father, Roy Allen Amyx, giving a nostalgic recollection circa 1907. The two of them as little children ran out of their home through the back yard and down Yocum Creek to their grandparents' house, where their grandmother would give them bread and wild blackberry jam.

Then 1984 came. I still have the last letter written to me by Dr. Lewis that year. He then passed away. I was well aware that Bonnie Ruth was a sister to the doctor. I ached with remorse that I did not meet him in person. I still yearned to visit the old home place in Kentucky, as Peggy did two years before, but my pen pal was gone. I also had a demanding job, along with a wife and children who would make a trip either untimely or financially improbable.

On Friday, April 16, 1993, during a talk with Peggy, she said to me, "Jim, we need to contact Bonnie Ruth!"

I knew who Bonnie Ruth was, but even after all these years (1984-1993), I had not met her. That first meeting became an hour long telephone conversation, and first contacts certainly do give lasting impressions. I stood on my feet throughout the phone call trying to add to the conversation.

Bonnie Ruth was very talkative, and I took in each of her words with a smile. The call went on and on, when I finally asked meekly, "Is it okay for me to come out and visit?"

I got an immediate invitation. It only took about two hours that day through a telephone conversation between Texas and Kentucky, but I had met a new friend who called me family. This was not just an ordinary cousin or part of an historic family. This was a special kind of friend — Miss Bonnie Ruth Lewis.

I rushed in my preparation for the trip. I had contacted Peggy, who decided to go, but would fly into Lexington along with Don and Emma Duggins. He too, the sponsor of the first reunion of 1980, and the sponsor of the reunion in West Liberty of 1996, was a grandson of Philip H. Amyx. Of course, I saw firsthand what I was looking for and had never seen.

I then met Bonnie Ruth for the first time, and it seemed to me that she had become a lifelong and loving acquaintance. Yet I had known her for only about four hours of time. The lasting impression of a first encounter with Bonnie Ruth and seeing the first source of photographs from Dr. Lewis cannot really be expressed in mere words.

I left that April, because my responsibilities at home forbade me to stay any longer. I sat down that year and continued to write little short stories of what I had observed and experienced.

It was less than a year later I was determined to go back, and left for another trip to Kentucky, this time with my wife and two of my sons in March 1994.

My son, Joey, has mentioned a number of times his impression of Bonnie Ruth in 1994. On her table, she set up a spread of food fit for a king's banquet. She placed the table buffet style for all of us to pick and choose, which my son, Allen, also remembers quite well. He especially remembers that she was taking care of her mother, Cora Easterling Lewis.

During Bonnie Ruth's busy and generous activity of providing the food, she chatted continuously about the family and the land, and would insert statements of apology that she was not providing enough for us. As she had stated many times, "You are family!"

She worked and talked with an inward generosity and an activity to place. She showed us her cows out back of the house, and on one occasion, she took Allen and me to look for a souvenir to take back home.

She handed me a canned jar of blackberry jam, where she insisted the berries had been picked in the same James Amyx Branch where my great-grandmother, Polly Amyx Sargent, greeted my dad and his sister, Anna Jane, some 87 years before.

As quickly as my sons, my wife and I had taken to Bonnie Ruth, and she had quickly taken to us, as she learned also about my feelings from reading some of my written memories.

Once, during the 1994 visit, she sat down to read some of my writings with some stories about what I had entitled, An Amyx Adventure. Taking my theme from various sources such as her brother, Dr. Lewis, and the documents he sent me, the transcription of Peggy's cassette tape back in 1983, and the reaction to this information, she read and become still and quiet. The talking and visiting had temporarily ceased.

"You know so much about the family," Bonnie Ruth said quietly. "No, I got most of that information from your brother," I answered quickly.

Then she said, "Well, anyway, it makes me want to cry."

That moment is vivid in my memory. In a way, I felt I had written it just for her.

The few hours in her presence in 1994 were cut short. I needed to return home.

In two years was the reunion to rival all others. I attended only with my youngest son, Joey. Since had been with me on the last trip, he wanted to come again — but mainly to visit Bonnie Ruth.

It was 1996, and the sponsors of the reunion were Don and Emmy Duggins, this time in the very appropriate community of West Liberty. They also had invited those from other Amyx surnames from the early progenitors of Matthew and Samuel. The Licking Valley Courier published a thorough and informative article to announce this special gathering.

On the first day of that 1996 reunion, I attempted to help Emmy as she set up in the large room. There was a delivery at the door. It was a large bouquet of flowers. Looking at the card, I read, "To the Amyx reunion from Bonnie Ruth Lewis."

In the evening of the last day, Bonnie Ruth made a personal appearance. A celebrity had entered the room to attend my Amyx reunion. A celebrity came to me while the crowd looked and gave me a big hug. Everyone knew Bonnie Ruth Lewis in the community; I felt so important.

Bonnie Ruth did not want a large group of people to visit that night, but she insisted that Joey and I come and see her before we left — even it was late. Joey will never forget this night in 1996. When we look at her picture today, we can clearly see in our imaginations the living facial features of her eyes and mouth as she spoke excitedly to us during the last visit that year.

It was after 10 p.m. when we left the reunion hall and checked out of the motel. We drove straight to Bonnie Ruth's house. As we talked about the Amyxes, Lewises and the general family, Joey and I were especially honored by a hostess willing to serve all our needs.

Joey ate food until he was full, and then finally after more reminiscing about the family, we decided in the early morning hours that three hours was long enough. We knew she was tired and decided we must go.

Since Bonnie Ruth could not convince us to spend the night, she made more than enough sandwiches for our trip back home.

Again, I got caught up in personal and family matters, and about 12 years passed by. In November 2008, I decided I needed to return to Morgan County. I wrote Bonnie Ruth a letter asking about when a good time would be to visit in the following year. Time passed, and there was not an answer. I was worried. Did someone else pick up her mail? Did I mail the letter to the wrong address?

Finally, in January 2009, I got a phone call from Bonnie Ruth. She had laid down my letter, and it was covered up on the table. But she kept looking for it until she found it.

Realizing that the weather would be better in March or April, I promised to call back when I got the family (and my old car) ready to go.

We talked again in March. I was not feeling well because of my COPD, a lung condition, but I still wanted to make the trip — even if I had to wait another month or two.

In May, I spent a number of days in bed and was very sick, but Bonnie Ruth called and talked to my wife, Joy. She was concerned about her house and that she needed to move. She also spoke of being sick.

That same month, my sister, Peggy, had talked to her. Bonnie Ruth told Peggy she had terminal cancer. She insisted that she did not have pain, but told Peggy that she was "yellow all over." When Peggy told me about the illness, my spirit became depressed for some time.

Around June 28, Peggy called and gave me the latest word. I had spent only one calendar day with Bonnie over so many years. In my heart, I reluctantly accepted the truth that Bonnie Ruth, that very special person who was dear to my heart, had passed away on June 24, 2009. She departed this life too soon for me.

I still find myself yearning to see Bonnie Ruth one more time. I will take a final trip to visit her one day, but not to the old home place in Kentucky. Like Miss Bonnie Ruth Lewis, I am a Christian and will yet see her again. This time, along with many of the family members who have passed on before, and with the Lord Jesus, we will have unending hours to visit.

Aug 31 — Get well wishes to the sick and shutins and sympathy to all who have lost loved ones.

August 24 was Senior Citizens Day, so I hope all the seniors enjoyed a good day.

Get well wishes go out to Carolyn Montgomery who is still on the mend after having surgery. I may need to send get well wishes to Mason also, I don't think Mason is faring to well with the cooking and household chores.

Carolyn's two granddaughters recently had birthdays. Skylar Goodpaster of Rt. 705 celebrated her 11th birthday on August 28th and cousin Rachel Mazzoni of Louisville celebrated her 13th birthday on August 30th. Happy birthday, girls.

The writer spoke by phone to Tamera Carpenter on Monday. She said she enjoyed her trip to Mammoth Cave.

We have been having delightful weather the past few weeks. Its so beautiful out and not real hot. Farmers are cutting and housing their tobacco, the ones who had any this year. Some of the tobacco didn't do so well.

The writer, Barbara and Tamara Carpenter had a vacation scheduled for Myrtle Beach in September, but had to cancel due to our schedules. Maybe next year.

Hello to Janie and Larry Allen. Hope you are doing good. Haven't got to see you for a while.

Harold Goodpaster spoke to Kristie Goodpaster by phone. She said she was faring ok. She had a cast put on her foot, it will remain there for at least a month.

Harold Goodpaster visited with Venus in the Winchester Nursing Home this week. She was some better. She had gained some weight. Barbara Carpenter traveled with him to see Venus also. They stopped at Captain D's and had lunch and sopped at Walmart in Mt. Sterling.

Teresa Lindon visited with Venus one day last week at the Nursing Center.

Lexie Goodpaster had as visitors this past week her daughter from Ohio, Phyllis and George Dehaven.

Harold Goodpaster visited with Lexie, Phyllis, and George on Saturday, and then ventured up to Ezel and called on Claudell Nickell.

Visitors of Harold Goodpaster have been Tim Peyton, Ricky Peyton, and Keith Cox.

The writer and Perry traveled up to the Paintsville Stock Yards on Saturday.

Members of Toms Branch Community Church having birthdays are Woody Bowman on Sept. 1 and Chris Poe on Sept 4. Happy Birthday to you.

If you would like to send Happy Birthday out to someone, let me know and I will post it.

Thank you, Faye Ferguson, for your comments. Sorry to read about your sister passing away. Hope you and Virgil get to feeling well. I enjoyed all the times we were in church together.

Get well wishes to Billy Lewis of Blaze, who had surgery on his ear recently. Hope you are doing ok.

Good to talk to Lisa Patrick at Commerical Bank other day.

A Happy Birthday goes out to my niece, Brandy Carpenter of Cleveland, Alabama. She had a birthday on Sept 3. She is the daughter of the late Keith Carpenter.

Well I guess I have run out of things to write. Please phone @725-4186 for news you would like to report.

Here's a receipe I hope you will get to try and enjoy.

It was graduation day, and a mother asked her son to dress in his cap and gown and pose with his father for a picture.

"Make it look natural," she said. "Put your arm around your father."

"To look natural," he answered, "I should put my hand in father's pocket."

Father: he's the fulfiller of wishes and dryer of dishes; maker of gains and soother of pains; fixer of bikes and chastiser of tykes; buyer of toys and leader of boys; wiper of smirches and worker in churches; tiller of sod and revealer of God.

No wonder the Bible says, "Honor thy father."

Our Sorghum Festival Memories

By Linda Oakley

Is it me, or does it just seem that small towns make the best memories? One of my most vivid childhood memories is when the circus came to town. Back then — okay, I am going to date myself now — we did not get in the car and drive to Lexington or Charleston a big arena. No, sir. The circus came on the train and unloaded animals, clowns, tents and everything else right there in our town. Then they all lined up and had a parade right down Main Street. The kids got out of school and lined the streets to watch the procession as they came through town.

Oh my, I can still feel the excitement of sitting on the courthouse steps watching the colorful fanfare and hearing the music, and going out and watching them raise the big top tent. My dad bought me a bag of peanuts and we actually got to go right up to the giant gray elephants and pet their long, wiggly trunks. They would take peanuts right out of our hands. I remember that like it was yesterday!

These are precious memories that time cannot erase. If I close my eyes, I can see it and smell the popcorn and roasted peanuts.

Those are my memories of the big event that came to our town in West Virginia. I can image the memories that Morgan County kids have grown up with for the last 39 years when it is Sorghum Festival time. I do not think we have ever had elephants here, but there have been lots of other things that would stir a child's excitement.

Our theme this year is "Sorghum Festival Memories." I wonder if 50 or 60 years down the road there will be an old gal writing an article for the paper somewhere telling about the big top tent that went up in the middle of Main Street in West Liberty.

If there is, I will bet she will say something like, "I remember when the festival came to town. We danced in the street and chewed on sticks of sorghum cane. I sat on my daddy's shoulders and watched the parade come down Prestonsburg Street. There were bands and horses, beauty queens and people throwing candy to us.

"I rode the kiddie train in the park, ate all kinds of good things and had a belly ache when I got home. We had lots of company come in, and Mama always cooked a big spread.

"There were men dressed like Civil War soldiers shooting of their cannons. Down at the park, there was a big, brown mule walking around grinding up cane.

"I watched the juice being cooked into sorghum. We took a jar of it home and poured some of it on a big dollop of butter, then smeared it on Mama's biscuits. Yum! I remember it like it was yesterday!"

I don't know, maybe there will be someone writing about the good ol' days at the Morgan County Sorghum Festival. What are your memories? I will bet you have some good ones. Oh, come on now — admit it. You do get a little excited when the big tent goes up. Yes, you do — you know you do. Guess what? Me too!

ment, a system that evaluates our process of accepting and delivering first class mail. The West Liberty Post Office was the only one in the Kentuckiana District to accomplish this achievement.

I'm writing today to inform you that I have accepted a promotion and will be moving to the Somerset, Ky. Post Office. Management of the West Liberty Post Office will change hands immediately. The Officer in Charge will be David Petrey. David comes to West Liberty from Prestonsburg. He is a native of Louisville. He and his wife, Paula, have four children. Paula, an elementary school teacher in Pikeville, has a master's degree in counseling.

Don't be dismayed at goodbyes; a farewell is necessary before you can meet again, and meeting again, after moments or lifetimes, is certain for those who are friends.

LOW INCOME SUBSIDY

Attention, people receiving Medicare's Low Income Subsidy (LIS/Extra Help) which helps to pay for prescription medication. In September, you will receive a letter from Medicare. This letter will tell you if you are eligible for Extra Help (LIS) for next year.

The letter from Medicare will be on grey paper and will be sent to those losing their Extra Help (LIS) status. If your income has changed any and you feel you still qualify for the Extra Help you can reapply by filling out the application that comes with the letter. The application must be completed and returned to Social Security within 30 days. They will determine if you are eligible to receive the help for next year.

In Mid October an orange letter will be sent from Medicare to LIS/Extra Help recipients explaining the change you can expect to pay in co-payments for each prescription for 2010. In late October a blue letter will be mailed from Medicare to people who receive LIS/Extra Help and whose Plan premiums will increase in 2010. The letter will tell you that Medicare will automatically reassign you to another Plan. Be sure that all prescriptions are covered by the Plan. There should be a telephone number that you may call to find out if the Plan will pay for your medications.

Medicare and your drug plan will send out many more letters about your plan in the next couple of months. Please read those letters carefully. Also, watch for the Medicare & You Handbook that will be mailed by October 31, 2009 for more information on Medicare benefits.

Plans that offer drug coverage through Medicare will begin marketing very soon. Don't accept telephone calls from another Plan unless you have called them and they are returning your call. Medicare does not allow a new Plan to contact you without you first contacting them.

Beginning in October, you may receive a letter from your current Drug Plan or Medicare Advantage Plan stating that it is terminating its contract with Medicare and will no longer offer you insurance or drug coverage. If you get a letter like this, you will need to enroll in another Plan for 2010. If you have Medicare and Medicaid benefits, Medicare will automatically enroll you into a Plan. You do want to be assured that the Plan that Medicare chooses for you will cover all your medications.

Remember that November 15th begins the enrollment period for the 2010 Plans. It is recommended that whether you like your Plan you are with or not that you do a comparison for the better Plan for you. Medications are deleted from coverage along with increase in co-payments and deductibles each year so you need to be sure of what you are paying out of pocket for 2010. The enrollment period will end December 31, 2009. If you do nothing you may have to remain with the Plan you have this year whether it is good for you or not.

TO THE CITIZENS OF WEST LIBERTY

Good Day to All:

It's been a privilege and honor to serve the community of West Liberty as Postmaster for the past six years. I've enjoyed meeting everyone and participating in Chamber of Commerce meetings. I have contemplated for quite some time to leave this community, a community that's accepted me and my family and has been very friendly.

Since arriving in West Liberty our customer satisfaction measurement scores have greatly improved. In fact, the West Liberty office has received 5 Star ratings on numerous occasions. We have also accomplished a 100% score on external first class measurement, a system that evaluates our process of accepting and delivering first class mail. The West Liberty Post Office was the only one in the Kentuckiana District to accomplish this achievement.

I'm writing today to inform you that I have accepted a promotion and will be moving to the Somerset, Ky. Post Office. Management of the West Liberty Post Office will change hands immediately. The Officer in Charge will be David Petrey. David comes to West Liberty from Prestonsburg. He is a native of Louisville. He and his wife, Paula, have four children. Paula, an elementary school teacher in Pikeville, has a master's degree in counseling.

Don't be dismayed at goodbyes; a farewell is necessary before you can meet again, and meeting again, after moments or lifetimes, is certain for those who are friends.

A Funny

"How did you get that bump on your head? a man asked his friend.

"Well, there was this sign over the entrance of a building I was about to enter, and since I'm nearsighted, I stepped closer to read it."

"And what did it say?"

"Caution — door swings out."

Lower Elkfork

By Alpha Clevenger

Aug. 31--Sympathy is extended to the family of Gladys Click. I hadn't heard of her passing until I read it in the newspaper. I was saddened to hear of her passing. I had known her for years. She was a real good person and nice and friendly and always the same. I used to be in church with her. May God bless and comfort all her family. She will be sadly missed by family and friends. Sympathy to all others who have lost loved ones. Get well wishes to the sick and shutins.

Thanks to a very nice and sweet lady friend, Dinah Davis, of Jeffersonville, Ky., for the produe you gave me. She called and told me to meet her at Save A Lot and she and I met there. Again thanks to her. I met her at church. Alpha has been working in beans. I bought some from such nice and friendly people, Mrs. Kenneth Hollon, of Mize. I had purchased some from them last summer and I called recently and she said I could buy a bushel. I appreciate that. They sure have a beautiful home.

Galye called on Friday. Good to hear from her again. She asked me to go to the Community Center on Saturday and enjoy the day and eat lunch, etc. and I told her I didn't know for sure if I would go. The temperature is rising today. Gonna be in the 90s. I dread that. i can't stand the heat. Will be glad when it cools down.

Alpha was at the Community Center Saturday and enjoyed being there. Talked to Gayle, Ann, and Bernice.

Sympathy is extended to the families of Randy Potter, Arthur Dean Bach, and Bill Howard. May God bless and comfort each family member. We've known them for years.

We had a hard storm and a lot of rain on Wednesday. They are giving more rain on Thursday. We need a lot of sunshine and dryer weather for a while and cooler temperatures. A lot of wet and rainy weathe ris hard on tomatoes and other vegetables in the garden.

Friday, Aug. 21, I was sitting on the front porch and I noticed the leaves on the oak tree and the wind was blowing and the temperatures wasn't so high and no humidity and the sun was shining on the oak tree leaves. I set and looked at the shiny leaves on the tree. I was thinking how beautiful they were. That's the Lord's handiwork. He is almighty, gracious, and merciful. He makes all things beautiful and wonderful and we should thank Him and praise Him for all He does for us. Without Him we are nothing at all. God is so good. Where would we be without Him? Happy birthday to my beautiful and only daughter, Joy, on Aug. 22nd. May you have man more.

Alpha, Dempsey, and Rosie were Saturday evening guest of Joy and family, of Ezel. Aug. 22 was Joy's birthday and we all enjoyed being together and enjoyed a delicious meal and birthday cake and ice cream. Pictures were taken later.

Alpha was walking at the park Thursday evening and talked to a very nice and friendly lady, Mrs. Elam. I forgot her given name but I have talked with her different times at the park.

Dempsey and Rosie were guest one day this week and got water, but didn't stay very long.

I was cutting corn to pickle and they helped me and got it done quickly. I was glad to have their help. As I have severe pain in my right hand and finger and can't hardly use a knife. I'll probably have to have surgery on my hand later on, but I hope not.

Dempsey and Rosie came Friday night and brought my medication to me. Thanks to them.

Dempsey came Saturday evening and went squirrel hunting and killed six. He said he'd take them home and skin them and one day we'd have them for supper.

How are you, Jewell Lewis? Hope you are doing well. God bless you and yours.

I am sitting on the porch today (Sunday evening) and listening to Rev. Vernon Lewis preaching. He does a good job and preaches the truth. Keep up the good work. Along with all the others that's preaching on the radio station in West Liberty.

How are you Sue Kinner? We wish you and Earl the best. You are great folks and good friends.

Joy called Saturday. Good to hear from her again. They were fine, today is a cool day, feels like a fall day. I enjoy this weather. If anyone has a yellow cat to give away, call and let me know. I had a big, blue gray cat and he was such a good hunter and I haven't seen him for some time. He must have wandered off or gotten run over in the road, or cyotes killed him or something. I sure miss him and I have another gray and white cat and he is so lonesome without the other one. He's acting like he is sick or something. I put out feed for him and he isn't eating at all. I wonder why.

Get well wishes to Edna Mae Lewis. I have been enjoying all my flowers and especially my beautiful zinnias. They are in full bloom now and so many different colors and the tall ones. I dearly love to look at them and I love my sunflowers. They are blooming too. I have the most beautiful red coloe's. They are the most beautiful ones I ever had.

If anyone has a good dog to give away, call me.

We have church at Brushy Fork 10 a.m. Sunday, Sept. 6.

Rachel was up during the weekend to visit with us.

Eunice and I stopped to see her sister, Becky Hammonds, on Sunday afternoon.

B.J. stopped in to see his dad on Friday night.

Please, friends and neighbors, if you have any news, announcements or something you would like to put in, call me at 743-9921.

As fall approaches, I think of the song, "Onward Christian Soldiers marching as to war with the cross of Jesus going on before."

In Ecclesiastics 3:1-8, "To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under the heaven. A time to be born, a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; a time to kill, a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; a time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; a time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace." (KJV)

We, as Christians, are soldiers for our Lord. We need to be on the battlefield. We are not fighting flesh and blood. As it says in Ephesians 6:11-12, "Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rules of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places." (KJV) peelings are easily removed by covering them with scalding water for about 2 minutes and the skins will slide off.

May God strengthen you as you armor up. God bless you and keep you!

- Place line dried clothes in the dryer for 5-50 to soften the fabric and remove wrinkles.

- A stainless steel sink is easily cleaned with a few sprinkles of baking soda on a wet paper towel.

- Silk flowers can be cleaned with the sink spray hose or a spray bottle of water. Let the flowers air dry in the sink.

Challenge Yourself

Labor Day marks the end of summer. Vacations are over and we re-focus our attention on work. It may be a time to reassess our career progress and satisfaction. Do I have adequate job security? Am I meeting my employer's expectations? Am I pleased with my own performance? As we continue to strive, we can reassess our spiritual progress as well. It takes a strong spirit to respond to challenges that arise along the way. God said in Exodus 20:9-10..."Six days you shall labor and do all your work, but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the Lord your God." In His wisdom, our Heavenly Father knew we would need the spiritual energy that comes from weekly worship. Won't you challenge yourself to worship each week? All meaningful progress begins in God's House.

GREAT BALLS OF FIRE

‘They’ve set the ball field on fire!’

By W. Lynn Nickell

An incident happened in West Liberty many years ago that probably never happened anywhere else. The baseball field was set on fire! Bizarre as it may seem, it is true.

After 50 years or so, my memory is fuzzy about the details, as well as those of others who were playing baseball with the Blue Sox team. There was no article in the local paper that I can find relating to the incident. I do not know why. You would think it would have been headline news, but it was such a ridiculous incident perhaps it was not newsworthy.

Here is a little background about West Liberty baseball at that time. I believe the year was 1956. The local team was in the Blue Grass League and was called the West Liberty Blue Sox. Later on in 1957, the team was to be called the West Liberty Road Oilers and was sponsored by Ruth Brothers Road Oiling Co.

Clarence Black was the manager, and Paul Shipley was business manager. What a pair they were! They helped make West Liberty baseball the experience of a lifetime.

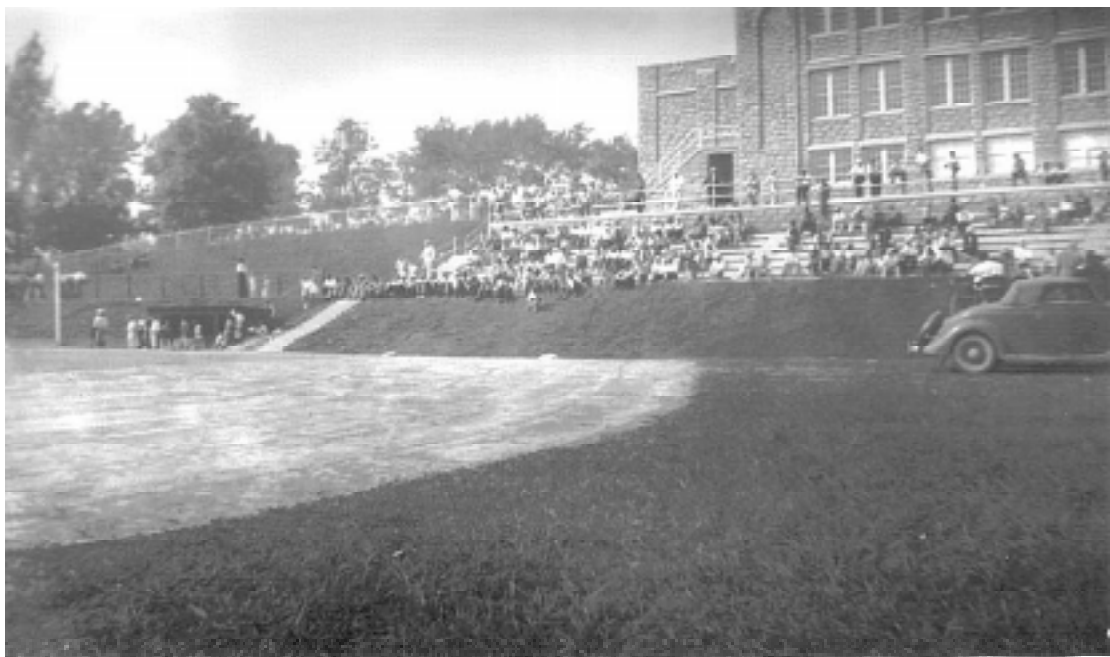

West Liberty was always in a heated battle with Irvine for the league championship. Irvine had Eastern University ace Guy Strong pitching, and Hobie Holbrook catching. West Liberty had Morehead ace Steve Hamilton on the mound, and Dudley Caudill behind the plate.

Hamilton and Strong had some monumental duels. Both became well known in the sports world. Hamilton became a professional basketball player, a major league pitcher with the Yankees, college coach and athletic director. Strong became a longtime high school and college coach.

The game, when the field was set on fire, was a crucial one that

This is a photo made during a baseball game in the 1950s. The West Liberty team, made up mostly of local players, was state semi-pro champions in 1956 and 1961. The baseball field was on the present high school football field.

Part of the crowd waiting to watch the West Liberty baseball team play ball on a Sunday afternoon. The car on the field was evidently used to drag the field before the game.

was valuable for the league playoffs. A quote from my book, The Love Of Baseball states: “In 1956, West Liberty won the state semi-pro baseball tournament. Clarence Black and Paul Shipley were managers. The local team provided wholesome Sunday afternoon entertainment and, at times, night games throughout the week. We had played against Owingsville, Irvine and Beattyville for so long the players and fans knew each other by name. There is still a camaraderie between players (those who are still living!) of the old Blue Grass League. It made for a great time to be playing small-town baseball in Kentucky. The fact that a small town like West Liberty could be the state semi-pro baseball champion was icing on the cake. At that time, West Liberty had a population of around 1,000 people.”

The starting line-up and batting order for the 1956 team was as follows: Lynn Nickell, lf; Fred Blair, ss; Dudley Caudill, c; Merle Nickell, 1b; Richie Stacy, 3b; Jerry Franklin, 2b; Steve Hamilton, p; Walter Brown, rf; Harold Hammond, cf.

Billy Ratliff, Joe Lykins and Jr. Dennis were also players on the team. Gene Harp, Paul Tesla, Jack Carter and Woody “Fats” Tolle joined the team for tournament play and the district play-off in Tennessee.

Teams in the eastern division of the league were West Liberty, Irvine, Owingsville, Lancaster, Beattyville and Stanton.

From conversations with Guy Strong and Hobie Holbrook (battery from Irvine), Joe Lykins, Merle Nickell, Richie Stacy, Jerry Franklin and my fuzzy memory, the incident happened like this:

The particular game that is the subject of this article was between Irvine, with ace pitcher Guy Strong, and West Liberty, going with their ace Steve Hamilton. The Blue Sox jumped out to a 6-0 lead. In the fourth inning with the Blue Sox comfortably ahead it came a downpour, “like water pouring from a bucket.”

The game was called. For two hours, the West Liberty managers and players argued the field would be playable in a short time, and the game could be resumed. The Irvine managers and players argued that since it hadn’t gone enough innings for an official game, the game should be called and played at a later date.

The umpires were caught in the middle, but sided with the locals to delay the game and hope the field dried off. Since West Liberty had a comfortable lead, things were going in our favor.

Joe Lykins, who was not playing at the time, says he was sitting in the bleachers with Henry Stacy. Henry was a former catcher for the team who had played for many years.

According to Joe, Henry was the one who suggested “to help dry the field, pour diesel fuel on it and set it on fire!” In a short time, someone arrived with cans of diesel fuel, and it was poured on the batter’s box, pitcher’s mound and along the base paths. You can imagine what a sight it was to see that field go up in black smoke!

A group of people loafing in front of the drug store wondering where the black smoke was coming from when someone drove down Main Street and yelled out, “They’ve set the ball field on fire!”

Immediately the group headed out Ruth Avenue toward the ball field to witness the unbelievable. To quote President Roosevelt, it was a day that will live in infamy in the minds of a few remaining witnesses.

Finally, the game was continued, even though the field was a quagmire and not fit to play on. All of this was happening to the dismay of the Irvine team.

Jerry Franklin stated, “The two-hour wait took its toll on Big Steve Hamilton, and he could hardly get anyone out once the game restarted.”

Irvine jumped on Steve like a cat bird on a June bug! They hit the ball all over the park and went on to defeat the locals pretty convincingly. No one seems to remember the score locally. Somehow, like a lot of unpleasant things, it has been blocked out of our minds. All we can remember is that Irvine won!

West Liberty did go on and win the Blue Grass tournament that year, and went to Tennessee for the district playoffs.

GOD ALWAYS WATCHES OVER YOU

There’s never a mement when God doesn’t care, never a worry that He doesn’t share. Never a time when His love isn’t there to cheer, and to brighten our way.

So trust in His love, so unfailing and true, believe in His Power to strengthen you, too, and may your faith bring many blessings to you day after beautiful day.

USDA-NRCS announces sign-up for new Conservation Stewardship Pgm.

Lexington, KY, Aug. 6--Tom Perrin, USDA's Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) State Conservationist in Kentucky, announced today that a sign-up period has been announced for the new Conservation Stewardship Program (CSP). The program was authorized by the Food, Conservation, and Energy Act of 2008 (2008 Farm Bill).

CSP is a voluntary program that encourages agricultural and forestry producers to maintain existing conservation activities and adopt additional ones on their operations.

Unlike the Conservation Security Program under the 2002 Farm Bill which was available only in designated watersheds, the new Conservation Stewardship Program is available statewide. Interested land users may submit an application beginning August 10, 2009, at their local USDA Service Center. Although applications will be accepted on a continuous basis, a ranking cut-off has been scheduled for September 30, 2009. To apply for the new program, potential participants will be encouraged to use a self-screening checklist first to determine whether the new program is suitable for them or their operation. It will be available on NRCS website and at NRCS field offices. After self-screening, the producer's current and proposed conservation practices are entered in the conservation measurement tool (CMT). This tool estimates the level of environmental performance to be achieved by a producer implementing and maintaining conservation activity. The conservation performance estimated by the CMT will be used to rank applications.

NRCS field staff also will conduct on-site field verifications of applicants' information obtained from the CMT. Once the potential participant has been field verified and approved for funding, he or she must develop a conservation stewardship plan.

For information about CSP, including eligibility requirements, producers can visit www.nrcs.usda.gov/newcsp or visit their local NRCS field office located at 955 Prestonsburg St., Ste. #2, West Liberty, KY. You may also contact Marty McCleese at (606) 743-3194.

Morgan County Quarterback Club
Keith “Coach” Miller Golf Scramble

The extreme heat from last weekend didn’t hinder the spirit of resident golfers and football fans as they turned out to support the Morgan County Cougar Football team and former Quarterback Club member and Little League Football coach Keith Miller. In the largest golf tournament ever hosted by the Pleasant Valley Country Club, 73 golfers weathered the extreme temps for a day of fun, fellowship and fundraising.

In a memorial tribute to “Coach” Miller, so fondly known by many, Mayor Jim Rupe, exclaimed that August 16, 2009 be declared Coach Miller day. Coach Miller was highly respected in the football community as was evident by the large number of golfers participating in his memory not only for the love of football but golf as well. After Mayor Rupe’s proclamation, a letter was read by Rusty Lindon, from Coach Miller’s brother, Jeff Miller, indicating his appreciation for such honors and that his brother would be so proud to know how highly revered he was among former players and friends on the gridiron.

Without a dry eye in the clubhouse, the tournament officials, Kevin Collins and Donnie McKenzie told the young Cougar football players in attendance, as well as the many golfers at hand, of the importance of life lessons to be learned on the football field and all they had learned from Coach Miller and just being around and loving the game of football itself.

With that spirit of kinship among the golfers, football enthusiasts and fans abounds, the tournament got underway. After seven hours of play, the winners were determined. Three teams turned in scores with 11 and 12 under par and had to have a chip off to determine the final prize winners.

In addition to the 12 tournament winners, were winners on 17 other holes earning them a Walmart gift card, free oil change, pizzas, golf cart service or gas card: Those winners were: Lee Bevins, Tony Saylor, Brandon Hamilton, Talmadge Brooks, Chris Trusty, Kevin Collin, Brian Evans, Dustin Drake, Steven Lykins, P.D. Motley, Brent Sturgill, Rusty Lindon, Frankie Keeton, Jake Vancleve, Jim Overstraten, and Jackie Perry.

Unfortunately, no one was able to take that shiny cougar

First place honors went to the foursome of: Jerry Lindon, David Easterling, Brian Evans, and Aaron Frederick. They split the largest jackpot of $400.

In second place was the team consisting of: Jackie Perry, Greg Stahley, John Motley, and Chad Rudd, who shared the $200 prize.

In third place, the team of: Jim Overstraeten, Jerry Hopkins, Joe Dan Gold and Talmadge Brooks split the $100 prize.

blue, Ford Focus home on the Hole-in-One shot, but there’s always next year!

All agreed that the “Coach” Miller Classic (Morgan County Quarterback Club Golf Scramble) is to continue to be an annual event with plans for expansion next year.

Many thanks to our local businesses and corporate sponsors for making August 16, 2009 an extra special day in the hearts of many golfers and football fans across Morgan and it’s surrounding counties.

MORGAN COUNTY FOOTBALL

Cougars drop overtime
heartbreaker to Pound
(Va.), 31-28

Morgan overcomes three 14-point deficits,
Harvey nets 355 all-purpose yards, 3 TDs

By David Patrick

It was a night of pride, hope, and heartbreak all wrapped into one. For the first time in over two years, Morgan County pushed an opponent to the limit.

Trailing by scores of 14-0, 20-6, and 28-14, the Cougars refused to fold and nearly put to rest a 20-game losing streak that has plagued the program since 2007.

Granted, it wasn’t a win—but it was darn close.

“I asked the kids after the game when was the last time they could remember that fans actually stayed around until the end of the game,” Cougar head coach Brian Turner said on Monday. “They couldn’t remember and neither could I. These kids have made a big improvement since the season opener against Rowan. I’m proud of their effort.”

Trailing 14-0 late in the second quarter, Turner’s team got on the board courtesy of a 90-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by Mitchell Harvey. Following a failed extra point, the Cougars trailed 14-6.

After Pound returned Morgan’s kickoff for a score, Harvey answered with a 43-yard return on the ensuing kickoff to put the ball inside the Wildcat 45. Nine plays later, Kyle Havens found pay dirt with less than a minute remaining in the half. A two- point conversion run by Harvey cut the deficit to 20-14 at the half.

Pound regained the momentum early in the third period with a 51-yard scoring run and two point conversion for a 28-14 lead. Morgan again answered by covering 63 yards in eight plays—capped by a touchdown and two-point conversion from Harvey.

Pound threatened to score near the end of the quarter, but a 51-yard TD run was negated by an offensive holding penalty. Havens then sacked the Wildcat quarterback on a fourth down play to give possession back to Morgan.

After two stalled drives, the Cougars had one last shot with 4:40 remaining in the fourth quarter. Faced with 4th down and eight yards to go, a halfback pass from Harvey gained only seven—turning the ball back over to the Cats. Pound kept the football on the ground to run out the clock, forcing Morgan to burn its final time out. With less than a minute remaining and the ball inside the five-yard line, the Cougars got new life when defensive lineman Jamie Ferguson stripped the ball carrier and broke the other way 80 yards before being chased down at the Wildcat 15 yard line.

“When Jamie stripped the ball, he stood there for a split second before he took off for the end zone,” Turner said. “I think Donnie McKenzie jumped two feet off the ground when we got the turnover. We tell our kids to never, ever give up until you hear that final whistle. Jamie made a big play.”

The Cougars capitalized on Ferguson’s heroics with a three-yard scoring run from Havens to tie the game at 28-all. A failed extra point attempt by the Cougars and a last-second incomplete pass from Pound sent the game into overtime.

Morgan County got first possession in the extra period, but failed to score after gaining seven yards on four carries. The Cougars then held Pound out of the end zone—bringing up a fourth and goal from the four-yard line. The Wildcats opted for the field goal—covering a 17-yard attempt off the left hash for the 32-28 win.

“Even though we lost, our kids are learning how to do the things that will eventually get them a win,” Turner said. “A game like that gives you a glimpse of hope. We’ve had our best practices of the year this week. Our seniors are determined that they’re not going to lose again this week. They believe this team can win football games. That’s a good feeling.”

A prime reason for optimism is the best career game turned in by Mitchell Harvey, who finished with 355 all-purpose yards,, including 171 on the ground. Harvey also gained 162 yards on kick-off returns and 22 yards passing. The senior started on the defensive side of the ball with a team-high 12 tackles.

Havens and Adam Cooper finished with 67 and 43 yards, respectively, on a combined 24 carries. Freshman Joe Holbrook had two rushes for 12 yards. As a team, Morgan finished with an impressive 289 rushing on 47 carries.

Grand Prix Table Tennis

Legend beats J. Howard in Title vs. Title match up

The August 26 Wednesday Round Robin featured GPTT Champion “The Legend” Byron Risner defending his title against top contender and Pride Champion Johnathon Howard. The Legend won the match four games to one, but Howard put in his best performance ever against the champ and has been the Pride Champion now for three consecutive weeks. He’s also become the league’s top recruiter by adding seven consistent players to the league over the last three weeks. “Red” Greg Howard put on a masterful performance as he won the overall Round Robin that included 10 players. His final record was 10-1, and it earned him a shot at the GPTT Championship at next week’s Wednesday Round Robin. Red won group A, and Cody Howard won group B with a record of 6-0. Greg beat Cody two straight games to become the overall RR champion for the night. We are drawing from Morehead State University students in record numbers, which is upping our numbers each week. We are expecting three more Morehead players next week as well as two from the Morgan County area.

GPTT is on a roll and table tennis is becoming more popular each week. Greg Howard and Byron Risner retained the GPTT Doubles Championship by a 3 to 2 game margin with a win over Cody Howard and Johnathon Howard. The two young stars gave the veterans a run for their money in a match that saw the legend hit a behind the back shot some 10 plus feet from the table only to see it hit the edge, that is the stuff of legend, no pun intended! The GPTT Board encourages everyone to come out on Wednesdays from 6 to 8 and play table tennis with us. Warm up is from 6:00 pm to 6:30 pm, and the round robin will begin promptly at 6:30 pm. Please e-mail us at gptt1@yahoo.com or go to our site <http://gptt.tripod.com> for more information on the top rated table tennis league in Eastern Kentucky. We are also USATT certified.

Morgan County High School’s links ladies placed third in the EKC Girls Golf Tournament Monday in Nicholasville.

It was a first for an MCHS team, according to coach Darrell Bradley—the first time MCHS has placed in the tourney’s top three.

“I was proud of the girls,” said Bradley. “They were playing on a course they’d never played before and showed they could play with any of the other eight teams.”

Nicholas County shot a 210 to win the tourney, followed by Bath County, 225, and Morgan with a 231. East Carter shot 234 and West Carter a 241.

Morgan’s Lindsay Pelfrey shot a 56 to lead the way for her teammates, followed by Danielle Clark, 60; Ashley Buckner, 62, and Brittany Hutchinson, 66.

Doing his bit for the Animal Shelter

Brennan Ison presents Vicki Stacy with a check for $131.00 for the Morgan County Animal Shelter. Brennan also gave her several bags of dog food, cat food and bones for the dogs at the shelter. Brennan raised the funds and money for the dog food at a lemonade stand he ran a few weeks ago to benefit the new county animal shelter.

This plaque and funeral home marker are all that mark the grave of Ellen Lewis, a black woman born shortly after the Civil War who lived and raised a family in the Helechawa community of Wolfe County. She was a midwife and was responsible for the safe arrival of hundreds of babies, mainly in Morgan, Wolfe and Breathitt counties from around 1915-1945. She was much beloved and respected by all who knew her. She is buried at the Wilson Family Cemetery at Helechawa. A picture of her and more information can be found in the book "Going Back to Kentucky" by Jude Centers.—Submitted

NAP pgm. closing dates are listed as Sept. 1, Sept. 30

Farm Service Agency (FSA) reminds agricultural producers of deadlines to apply for the Non-insured Crop Disaster Assistance Program (NAP) for crops in order to be eligible for the agency's disaster assistance programs.

The NAP provides financial assistance to producers of non-insurable crops when low yields, loss of inventory or prevented planting occurring because of natural disasters. Producers must purchase at least catastrophic (CAT) level of insurance for all insurable crops and/or FSA's NAP coverage for non-insurable crops to be eligible for the USDA

Farm Service Agency disaster assistance programs.

The final dates to apply for coverage under NAP for 2010 for the following crops are:

Sept. 1 – Sodgrass, Christmas trees, crustaceans, ornamental nursery, finfish and flowers.

Sept. 30 – Barley-GR, rye, TEFF and wheat.

Producers must apply for coverage before a disaster strikes. Like regular crop insurance, once an application period closes, the opportunity to obtain coverage is gone.

For details, producers should contact their local county FSA office.

Pandemic flu: things to keep in mind

Planning ahead

During a flu pandemic, government officials may be required to limit community movement or impose travel restrictions to help prevent the flu virus from spreading.

Things To Keep In Mind

You may be asked to stay home for an extended period of time even if you are not sick.

Schools, workplaces and public gatherings such as sporting events or worship services may close temporarily.

Mass transportation such as subways, buses, trains and air travel may be limited.

You, your family and friends may need to rely on each other when you cannot depend on the services you normally use.

Planning At Home

Store a two-week supply of food. Select foods that do not need refrigeration, preparation or cooking. Ensure that formula for infants and any child or older person's special nutritional needs are a part of your planning. Plan for your pets as well.

Store a two-week supply of water, one gallon of water per person per day, in clean plastic containers. Avoid using containers that will decompose or break, such as milk cartons or glass bottles.

Store health and cleaning supplies such as bleach, tissues, a thermometer, disposable gloves, soap and alcohol-based hand sanitizers.

Ask your health care provider and health insurance company if you can get an extra supply of your regular prescription drugs and medical supplies, such as glucose monitoring supplies.

Talk with family members and loved ones about how they could be cared for if they got sick.

Planning In Your Community

Ask about plans to enable you to stay home if you are sick or a family member is sick.

Find out your employer's plans to keep the business open if the staff can't come to work.

Find out about our child's school or day-care provider's plans for handling a flu pandemic.

Ask if there are plans to encourage sick children to stay home to reduce the spread of the disease.

Ask if there are plans to close during a pandemic that would require all the children to remain at home.

Finding out the answers ahead of time will have a significant impact on your plans and decisions during a flu pandemic.

Information produced by Morgan County Emergency Management Director Irene Jenkins.
